Travelex Insurance Services Introduces New Business Traveler Program

OMAHA, Neb. – July 2010 – The U. S. economy is recovering from a two year recession, and the business people who are making it happen are traveling nationally and internationally with growing frequency. The chance they will experience unexpected events which will impact their travel plans is very likely. Unfortunately, these occurrences are not only inconvenient and stressful; they are also quite expensive to the traveler and the company.

Travelex Insurance Services, a leading provider of travel protection, has introduced a new Business Traveler Protection Program to limit the costs associated with many travel related mishaps. The unique insurance plans are tailored specifically to the needs of the business traveler; offering flexible benefit options to accommodate the corporate executive, self-employed business owners and even the one-time incentive trip winner.

Two flexible plans are available. The Single Trip Plan provides comprehensive coverage for a flat rate of just $19.00 per trip. For the frequent business traveler, the Annual Plan covers an unlimited number of trips over a twelve month period. The Annual Plan rate is just $59.00 per year. Both the Single Trip and Annual base plans include protection against trip delay; lost or stolen baggage plus coverage for professional equipment such as laptops, PDA's and cell phones. Additional protection for trip cancelation, medical expenses and rental vehicle damage can be added to the base plan at the time of purchase to personalize the protection plan to meet the business traveler's individual needs.

With the cost of travel on the rise, carrier delays and the increasing likelihood of unexpected events; business travel insurance makes perfect sense to protect against the financial impact of canceled or interrupted trips, missed connections and damage to professional business property. Mike Ambrose, President of Travelex Insurance Services says, "Business travel has become one of the most expensive costs incurred by businesses and the self employed. Our new Business Traveler Protection Plans are an economical way for large and small businesses to help reduce the costs associated with frequently incurred unexpected events."

Business Traveler Insurance Plans from Travelex are available to businesses and individual business travelers through travel agents, online at www.travelexinsurance.com or through the Travelex Customer Call Center at: 1-800-228-9792.
